

Key Stage Five PSHE

1 Welcome

WELCOME

When might someone experience emotional highs and lows at the stadium?

Highs	Lows

Fill in the table to show who might experience the emotions and why. (One has been completed for you)

- A Football fan
- A Young athlete
- A Family

Emotion	WHO?	WHY?
Excitement	Someone attending a concert
Highs and lows
Brilliant day out
Inspiration

2 The Royal East

MAIN VIDEO

The Olympics and West Ham United are both celebrated in The Royal East. How many ways can you find?

HINT:  Look up and around

You have 5 minutes...GO!

Key Stage Five PSHE

Olympics/Athletics	West Ham United
SAMPLE
Continue filling in this table as you continue through the tour.

Key Stage Five PSHE

A fundamental part of the 2012 Olympics bid was the legacy left behind. How have the local community benefited from changes that occurred?

Give four arguments. (Hint – think pre-Olympics as well as post-Olympics)

▶ RAISING THE ROOF VIDEO

How have the roof designers considered the fans' (spectators') experience? Tick two correct answers.

Made the sound better

Covered all the seats

Made the roof more attractive

Key Stage Five PSHE

3 Stadium Views

From here what can you see that makes this stadium inclusive?

Remember to note down evidence from what you see and hear of how the two main identities of the London Stadium are celebrated throughout the tour. Think... words and colours in the stadium views

Before watching the video, read through the following question so you are ready to pause at the right time.

SUPER SATURDAY VIDEO

Why was August 4th 2012 voted the greatest day in British sport?

Which British athlete's achievements are celebrated by 'Super Saturday'?

How did Mo Farah's ability to manage the stress of his Olympic events benefit him?
